

Who are we? We believe that careers need room to grow! Federal-Mogul Powertrain has developed and delivered innovative technologies for over a century. We have 37,000 employees in 90 global locations in 20 countries. We are a global leader in Pistons, Piston Rings & Liners, Bearings, Valvetrain, Valve Seats & Guides, Sealing, Systems Protection and Ignition.

Start with us in September 2017

Federal-Mogul Powertrain's European Graduate Program prepares highly talented alumni with first working experience to assume future leadership roles in fast paced, results-driven disciplines. The 2 year program is designed to equip participants with a broad overview of the company, business units and functional areas with assignments taking place in plant, technical and/or corporate environments.

European Graduate Program - Engineering (f/m)

THE PROGRAM:

- Two year graduate trainee program in our European facilities during which you will be responsible for several project assignments that address critical business topics
- Working on innovative projects and operations in close cooperation with the local and international teams.
- Various training and learning programs to assist with your personal and professional development
- You will have an individual mentor helping your orientation to the company.
- A highly competitive salary, relocation assistance if required.
- A permanent working contract.

THE REQUIREMENTS:

- Bachelor or Master Degree in Engineering (finished by program start date in September 2017), with a better than average grade/ degree in Automotive, Mechanics, Manufacturing or equivalent mandatory.
- First practical work experience in the Manufacturing and/ or Production field, through internships or work student assignments.
- International mindset including international experience by studying or working in different countries.
- Open for international relocations throughout the 2 year rotational program.
- Strong problem solving skills, solution- and team orientation.
- Highly proficient in spoken and written English required other EMEA languages highly beneficial.

WHAT WE OFFER:

Join us and you'll develop your skills and expertise to the very highest levels, working in an international environment for a company known for excellence and innovation.

In accordance with our core values, we recognize the importance of diversity in our company and seek to cultivate a winning team of quality individuals who act with integrity and respect, and strive to be the best in all they do. Please apply via: <http://tinyurl.com/jvcnqua>
Please note that only applicants holding a valid work permit for the European Union (at the time of the application) can be considered.

www.federalmogul.com/careers